

Guidance Note 6 – Typical Details: On-Line Storage – Box Feed

What happens to the water?

1. During a storm event, the AquaCell box unit storage assembly quickly fills with water via the box feed connection.
2. After storm event, water flows back out of the AquaCell box unit storage assembly, finding its own level, and into the downstream control chamber.
3. The water then flows through the vortex flow control valve.

